"If you're living, if you're breathing, you've got something to say!"

The words of singer/songwriter Matthew West are the inspiration for the Wyoming Association of REALTORS®' 58th Annual Convention: REALTORS® Have Something to Say! Steven Beazley, WAR's 2010 State President, is committed to improving the quality of communication among Wyoming REALTORS®, the association, and our communities.

As our valued sponsors and vendors over the years, we know that you also have Something to Say and would like an opportunity to say it to our members. Sponsors enjoy their own brand of networking, whether it's exclusive sponsorship or a partnership. If name and product recognition are what you're looking for, then a sponsorship will put you in a profitable networking opportunity!

This year we are trying something completely different than we have ever done before. Rather than organizing a trade show, we would like to offer you a one-on-one experience with our members. There are several networking opportunities from which to choose. You will have exclusive access to real estate professionals at the event you sponsor. For example, if you sponsor a coffee break, you may set up a table right next to the cookies and coffee and greet each member as they go through the line. This will greatly increase your exposure and face-to-face contact.

We hope you will give this new avenue a try at the annual convention held in Casper September 14-17, 2010 at the Parkway Plaza. Preparations are being made for more than 250 REALTORS®, Affiliates, real estate professionals, and guests.

Please review the enclosed sponsorship information, choose the event you would like to sponsor, and send your sponsorship reservation to the Wyoming Association of REALTORS® as soon as possible. One of our exclusive opportunities is already spoken for!

Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions or would like to discuss alternate ideas for sponsorship.
